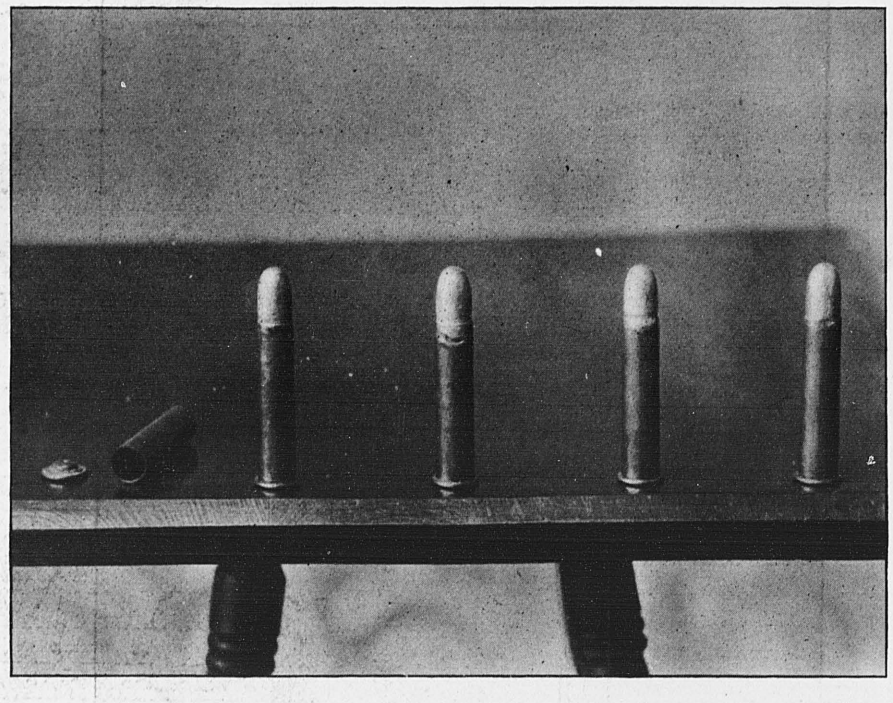
THE annual State Rifle Matches held at the State range, Mt. Gretna, August 23 to 26 inclusive, were productive of greater dissatisfaction than any ever held in the State, and it is doubtful if they will ever be excelled from that point of view. The ammunition was the principal cause of the trouble. It was manufactured by the Peters Cartridge Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, and poorer stuff never was put in a gun. If the factory had been searched for culls and condemned cartridges a poorer lot could not have been found. The Peters Cartridge Co. did not add to its fame at these matches, and it is doubtful if they can induce Pennsylvania marksmen to again use goods of their manufacture.

The ammunition appeared to have been put together in a most careless manner. The bullets in many instances pressed down the edge of the shells so that the bottom of the ball was visible. In other cases the lead spread over the edge of the shell. In others pieces of shell were imbedded in the ball. The balls were creased and soft and the shells badly dented.

The poor quality of the ammunition gave rise to many rumors and charges. The ammunition was obtained upon the recommendation of Lieut. E. Claude Goddard, I. R. P., Sixth Regiment. Lieut. Goddard was loud in his condemnation of the stuff, and stated that it was not the ammunition he asked for, but a much inferior lot. Among the rumors current at the range was that certain teams had been practicing with Peters ammunition, that a better quality of Peters had been substituted by some teams and their scores were due to this. The teams referred to strenuously deny this. Another charge was that the winning team in the skirmish match fired more shots than the rules allowed. This was also denied by its members. Some of the wise ones brought Winchester cartridge shells, picked up on the range, to show that ammunition of that make had been substituted for the poor Peters stuff, but these wise ones were not aware of the fact that the carbine ammunition issued to the Cavalry teams was of Winchester make. It is probable that all of the other rumors had as little basis.



Specimen of Peters' Ammunition used at Mt. Gretna, August 29th.

The trophies were very evenly divided, the Regimental cup going to the First Brigade, the Brigade cup to the Second Brigade, and the Skirmish cup to the Third Brigade. The Cavalry events all went to the First Brigade.

Regimental Match.

The match for the Regimental cup was shot August 27, and resulted in a victory for the Sixth Regiment, as follows:

All Comers Match.

There were 79 entries in the All Comers Match, which was won as follows:

	200 yds.	500 yds.	Total
Corp. Dunham, 16th Regt.	45	44	89

Expert Revolver Match.

There were 25 entries in the Expert Revolver Match, which was won by Lieut. Franklin Henshaw, Company F, Thirteenth Regiment, as follows:

	25 yds.	50 yds.	75 yds.	Total
Lieut. Henshaw	23	22	20	65

Revolver Match.

There were only 10 entries in the Revolver Match, which was won by Lieut. Harry J. Mehard, First Regiment, as follows:

	25 yds.	50 yds.	75 yds.	Total
Lieut. Mehard	30	28	26	84

Champion Shot Medal.

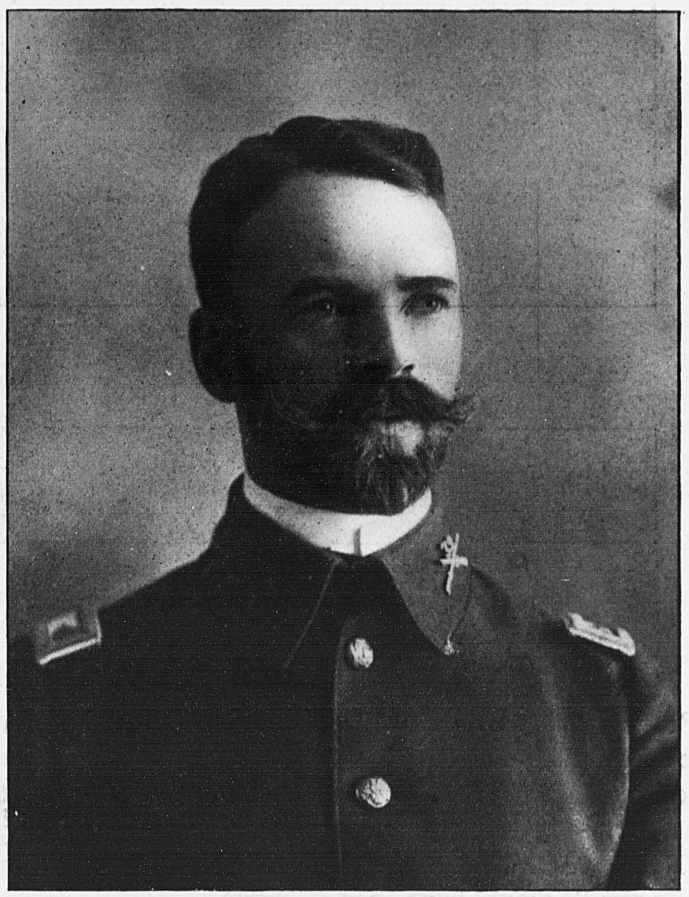
The Champion Shot Medal for the highest average at known distances during the week was awarded to Sergt. Joel Miller, Company H, Sixteenth Regiment, whose average was 88.40.

Second Brigade Trophy.

The Second Brigade Trophy, a handsome bronze Sheridan's Ride, was won by the Sixteenth Regiment.

Third Brigade Medals.

Two medals are offered in the Third Brigade annually, one for the best average at known distances, and the other for the best individual skirmish score. The skirmish medal was won by First Sergeant Robert Gamble, Company D, Eighth Regiment, with 88, and the Crack Shot Medal by Private Moore, of the Thirteenth Regiment, with an average of 84.80.



Major George T. Langhorne, 11th U. S. Cavalry.

Selected for Sea Girt Team.

As a result of these matches the following were selected to represent the State at Sea Girt: Sergeant Miller, 16th; Private Perkins, 6th; Lieutenant Goddard, 6th; Lieutenant Foulke, 2d; Private Moore, 13th; Lieutenant Mehard, 1st; Private Burton, 6th; Corporal Dunham, 16th; Private Spering, 6th; Captain Kemp, 3d; Corporal Gunning, 16th; Sergeant Gamble, 8th; Lieutenant Shields, 14th; Private Shonert, 1st; Lieutenant Slone, 16th; Private Conneely, 16th; Lieutenant Schuyler, 12th.

The Squadron Team selected was Sergeant Bates, Trooper Bower and Trumpeter Singer, First Troop, P. C. C.; Sergeant Andrews and Corporal Reeves, Second Troop, P. C. C.; Lieutenant Zentmyer and Sergeant Fleck, of the Sheridan Troop.

The Sixteenth Regiment won the trip to Sea Girt for its regimental team.

At Sea Girt.

The Pennsylvania team at Sea Girt did not cover itself with glory, but when you take into consideration that it was shooting the Springfield against the other teams armed with the Krag the results are excellent and all that could be hoped for. Had Pennsylvania had the Krag and sufficient practice with it to familiarize themselves with it the results would have been different.

The Hilton Trophy.

The Pennsylvania team secured fourth place in the match for the Hilton trophy, losing because of inferiority of aim. The score of the Pennsylvania team was as follows:

	200 yds.	500 yds.	600 yds.	Total
Sergt. Miller, 16th Regt	28	35	32	95
Corp. Dunham, 16th Regt	26	30	30	86

Interstate Match.

In the Interstate Match Pennsylvania again came in fourth, her team making the following score:

	200 yds.	500 yds.	Total
Sergt. Miller, 16th Regt	45	49	94
Corp. Dunham, 16th Regt	42	44	86

COLONEL JAMES B. CORYELL, with the field, line and staff officers of the Sixth Infantry, took part in the Memorial Service with the Third Infantry, who attended services at the Rev. Russell H. Conwell's Temple, on September 19th. During the line of march, Col. Coryell marched with Col. Wm. G. Price, Jr. The Third Infantry made a very creditable appearance, parading with arms and headed by their consolidated brass and field music, their twelve companies averaging sixteen files front.

THE McKinley Memorial services, as arranged by Col. Henry T. Dechert, Second Regiment Infantry, proved impressively interesting. The regiment assembled at the Armory, in full uniform, on the evening of September 18th, when the proclamation of President Roosevelt, announcing the death of President McKinley, was read, as also Governor Stone's order to the National Guard of Pennsylvania, prescribing the customary honors. During the ceremony, Captain Henry C. McCook, Regimental Chaplain, extended a cordial invitation to the members of the regiment to attend the memorial services at the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, 37th and Chestnut Streets, on Thursday, September 19th. The memorial address followed the invitation, after which the regiment joined in chorus in singing "A Nation's Mourning Hymn," written by Dr. McCook at the time of President Lincoln's assassination and sung by the Second Regiment in services in memory of President Garfield. The "Star Spangled Banner" was rendered by the full Regimental Band, under the direction of Chief Musician H. M. Staton. Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. Gerald P. Coghlan.

Personal Mention

Major General Miller's reception at Franklin, Pa., on October 1st, promises to be a very large affair.

The parade of the Tenth Regiment in the town of Somerset on August 23d was received enthusiastically by the citizens of their regimental district.

The Corps of Officers of the Third Regiment will meet on Friday evening, October 4th, when active steps will be taken to formulate plans to enlarge the Armory.

The ambulance of the Second Brigade headquarters is quite an up-to-date hospital vehicle, and should be adopted by the First and Third Brigade headquarters.

Gen. Charles Miller is very much in favor of a consolidated Hospital Corps attached directly to the Medical Department, and the men being separately enlisted.

The sectional flag staff used at Gen. Wiley's headquarters during the season of Camp Perchment, was quite an improvement over the old "Wooden Mast." It is on the principle of an adjustable angling rod.

Col. Frank I. Rutledge, Eighteenth Infantry, suggests that a check roll call be established at 11 P. M., to take the place of the tattoo, and that men receiving passes to leave Camp must report back before that time.

Company "I" Third Infantry, has organized a basket ball team, which is open for challenges for the coming season. Communications should be addressed to Sergeant David B. Simpson, 2423 S Juniper Street, Philadelphia.

The time-honored and famous First Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry is having a very large painting made by Artist Becker. This is to adorn the wall of the new Armory. It shows the Troop in its historical dress uniform.

The Thirteenth Infantry is having a lot of trouble with its swimming pool. It is claimed that the brick structure is not water proof, and that before the Armory is finally accepted from the contractor this condition must be remedied.

The sanitary and mess arrangements of the Sixteenth Infantry (Col. Hulings), at Camp Perchment, were without exception the finest in the Brigade. The policing of their site received a great deal of attention, and was equal to any post of the regular establishment.

The commissioned officers of the Fourteenth Infantry, who served with Col. Thompson during the Spanish-American War, presented him with a handsome sabre suitably inscribed, as a token of appreciation and the esteem in which they hold him as their commanding officer.

The reception tendered Governor and Mrs. Stone by Colonel John V. Shoemaker, Surgeon-General State of Pennsylvania, proved a very enjoyable affair. Major General Miller, General Schall and their respective staffs, as well as many prominent military and civil officials were present.

Col. Bowman's "First Foot" made an excellent showing on the occasion of the McKinley Memorial Service. The regiment appeared in their natty dress uniforms and was accompanied by their celebrated musical organization of one hundred pieces, under the direction of Professor Kendal.

The First Regiment Veteran Corps, under command of Colonel Theodore E. Weidersheim, also attended the service, parading at the head of the regiment with a band of fifty pieces.

The Interstate Regimental.

There were two Pennsylvania teams in the Interstate Regimental Match, the Sixteenth Regiment finishing seventh with 522 and the Third Regiment twentieth with a score of 424. There were twenty-one teams in the match, which was won by the First District of Columbia with 545.

Company Team Match.

There were three Pennsylvania teams in this match, the First Troop, P. C. C., taking third place with a score of 285; Company A, Third Infantry, taking eighth place with 255, and Company K, Third Infantry, was tenth with 297. There were eleven teams in the match, which was won by Company A, Second Infantry, District of Columbia.

Carbine Team Match.

Pennsylvania Squadron team came so near winning the Carbine Team Match that the disappointment was great. Pennsylvania and New Jersey tied at 205 points, but New Jersey won through having four points the best at 500 yards. The Pennsylvania Squadron score was as follows:

	200 yds.	500 yds.	Total
Sergeant Bates	18	22	40
Private Bower	21	19	40
Trumpeter Singer	19	23	42
Sergeant Flert	22	17	39
Corporal Reeves	21	23	44
	101	104	205

The International Matches.

The American teams were unfortunate in losing both of the International Matches. The Centennial Palma was won by the Canadians by a score of 1522 to the Americans 1494, and the Challenge Cup was won by the Irish team, which scored 1620 points to the Americans 1558. Lieut. Foulke, of the Second Infantry, N. G. P., shot on the American team, scoring 73 at 800 yards, 64 at 900 yards, and 78 at 1000 yards, a total of 195.

The experiences of the Pennsylvania team at Sea Girt this year have made still more plain the fact that it is an absolute waste of money to send representatives to shoot in the Hilton and Interstate matches under the present methods.

In the first place the Springfield rifle cannot compete with the Krag and other high-power rifles when in the hands of competent shots.

In the second place the training given the Pennsylvania team is not such as is calculated to make a winner of it. Selected as it is, but two or three days before the matches in which they are to shoot, there is no opportunity for the coachers to get acquainted with either the men or the rifles, and no opportunity for team practice. Yet they are expected to compete with teams selected months before and practicing together as teams all that time.

If Pennsylvania is to be represented by a State team at Sea Girt the men should have Krag rifles, the team should be selected at least a week before the Interstate matches and should be given a full week's practice together, as a team, and under the same coaches who are to have charge at Sea Girt.

The spirit of economy, commendable as it is, has robbed Pennsylvania of the prestige she once had on the rifle range. The State matches are so curtailed and crowded that the best results cannot be obtained. The matches should occupy a full week instead of four days, and the men be given every opportunity to get the best results. If one or the other must suffer let Sea Girt be the one and build up our own State matches first.

LIEUT. HUGH CRAIG, JR.

The four Williamsport companies of the Twelfth Regiment are contemplating making another effort to secure money to build a battalion armory. Their present armory is a fair one for a single company, but they want a larger one for the battalion. This, coupled with the fact that the owner of the armory has been trying to make a deal with another party to rent the hall, has caused an awakening in armory interest.

The Eighth Regiment is proud of the success of its rifle team at Mt. Gretna. Lieut. Houtz has trained the men and his systematic work has borne results. In the Regimental match it stood higher than ever before and it won the Skirmish match.

The Twelfth Regiment companies resumed drill September 1, after the usual summer vacation which follows camp.

First Lieutenant B. Budd Cannon, Company C, Twelfth Regiment, has resigned. Lieutenant Cannon was Captain of the Company during the Spanish-American War and was one of the best officers in the regiment.

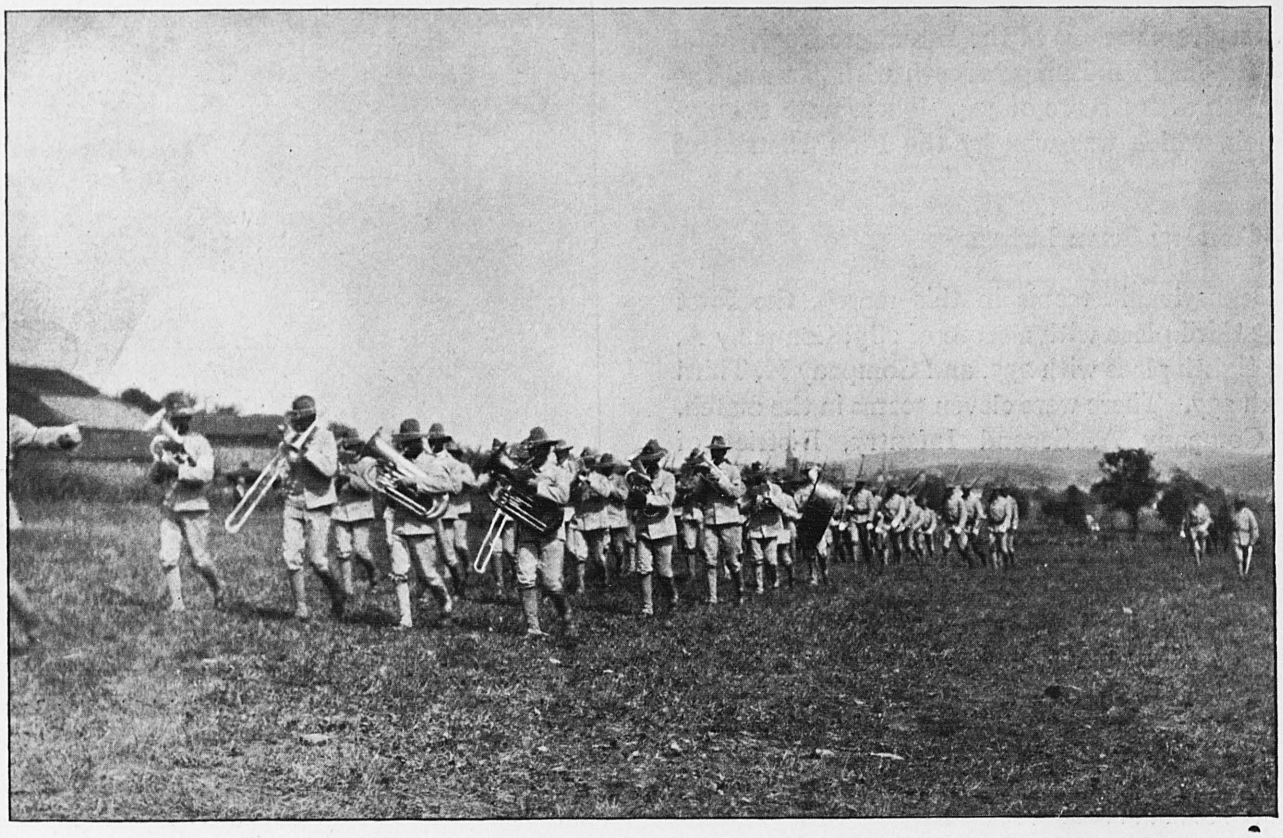
The rifle practice department of the Fourth Regiment will receive a shaking up at the hands of Lieutenant Miller. The Fourth should stand higher in the State matches, and Lieutenant Miller is determined that it shall.

Company C, Ninth Regiment, will put its basket ball team in the field again this winter. Lieutenant Francis has been very successful in past years with his team, and expects an equally successful season this winter.

Lieutenant Maurice Clemens is in command of Company I, Thirteenth Regiment, located at Easton.

Lieutenant Franklin Husband, Company F, Thirteenth Regiment, is one of the few officers who was sufficiently interested in the State matches to go to Mt. Gretna and enter the revolver contests. He captured the expert match.

An excellent idea at Camp Perchment was the separate quarters of the Guard. These were furnished with portable bunks and gun racks properly spaced and numbered for the three reliefs. Each man, during his tour, was required to keep his kit at the Guard quarters. This plan not only prevented confusion, but kept the men away from the Guard House where only the prisoners were confined. The latter quarters were furnished with board floors, and at all times kept thoroughly cleaned. The officers of the Guard had separate quarters. This system is productive of much good, and should be adopted by the State. We would suggest that Col. John P. Penney, who has labored many years for the improvement of guard duty, be detailed to supervise and perfect this system.



The Arrival at Camp of our "Fighting Tenth" (Col. James E. Barrett).

The location of the Division Encampment for 1902 is already attracting attention. Col. W. Fred Reynolds, of Governor Stone's staff, is first in the field and has offered his farms, at Rock View, Center county, as a site. If the facilities, both territorial and railroad, are adequate at Rock View, the location is good. The division has never encamped west of Lewistown.

Captain Warburton's men made quite a good showing on inspection, September 26th, when Governor Stone, Major General Miller, General Schall and other officials visited Battery A's Camp and witnessed their new manoeuvres with the Colt Automatic Gun. Thirty-five men took part in these exercises.

General A. H. Coffroth.

General A. H. Coffroth has for many years been a warm friend of Pennsylvania soldiery, especially of our "Fighting Tenth," which is located in his district. A man with generous sympathies, with few peers as a lawyer, and an orator, gifted with the grand power of stirring the hearts of men, he has been many times called upon to lead and marshal his hosts. The circumstances connected with his life are most interesting. His father, John Coffroth, of Teutonic origin, was born in Hagerstown, Md.; his mother was a native of Franklin County, Pa. They came into Somerset County in 1808 and soon became popular and influential in the community in which they resided. Their son, Hon. A. H. Coffroth, was born in Somerset, in 1828, and his whole life has been spent in this place, except while in public service elsewhere. He attended the public schools and the old Somerset Academy and then engaged in teaching. Law, however, was the ambition of his life; he was a favorite student in the office of the Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, a man who has done much to make the town famous for able barristers. Mr. Coffroth was admitted to the bar in 1851, so that he is one of the active senior counsellors in the State of Pennsylvania. In 1862 and 1878, he was sent to Congress from the district then consisting of the Counties of Somerset, Cambria, Blair and Bedford. During the first period of his Congressional career, he was a member of the Committee for the examination of accounts of the Treasury Department and on the Committee of Invalid Pensions; during his last term, he was chairman of the Committee on Invalid Pensions and was chairman of the Select Committee on the examination of the Pension and Bounty Department. In 1881, he laid down the responsibilities of public life and has since devoted his entire attention to his profession. The General has one son living, who is a prominent member of the bar of Lincoln, Nebraska. Before the Civil Strife, Mr. Coffroth was Major-General of Volunteers and the community always address him, in a respectful manner, by his military title, which seems especially appropriate, as his generous temperament and military bearing at once stamp him as a soldier. He was a warm friend of President Lincoln and one of the pall bearers at the obsequies. He believes in the power of kindness and firmness.

Francis J. Kooser, Esq.

During the Revolutionary War, the Kooser family came from Germany and settled in eastern Pennsylvania; gradually, they drifted westward, and the representatives of this family are now found in Indiana, Clearfield, Fayette and Somerset. Mr. Kooser's father was Curtis Kooser, who was a native of Westmoreland County, where he was twice elected to the responsible position of county treasurer. Francis J. Kooser was born at Somerset, June 15, 1846, and was educated at the State Normal School and Pennsylvania College. For several years, he taught in the public schools, finally taking up the study of law. His legal preceptor was the Honorable William H. Koontz; in 1867, he completed his studies and was admitted to the bar. His son, Ernest, is also a member of the Somerset County Bar and was formerly a lieutenant of the Tenth Pennsylvania Infantry; he is associated with his father in the law business. Mr. Kooser has filled various public positions; in 1868, he was elected district attorney. He has also been prothonotary and clerk of the courts. His practice is quite extensive in the county, State and national courts and his success has been pronounced. Mr. Kooser is being strongly urged for the County Judiciary.

William Henry Ruppel, Esq.

Mr. Ruppel was born at Frostburg, Md., May 13, 1849. His father, Christian Ruppel, was of Teutonic origin and came to America in 1841. He attended the common schools and later was a student in the Normal School, where he also received private tuition.

For many years he followed the vocation of school instructor in Mineral County, W. Va., and in Somerset County; he finally settled upon law as his future profession and became a student in the office of General Coffroth. He was admitted to the bar in November, 1872, and at once formed a partnership with Mr. Coffroth which is still in force. Mr. Ruppel, like his partner, has a strong following and although he has never held any public position, he is being urged very strongly to accept the nomination for the high office of President Judge. He is a man of the strictest integrity, highest character and most eminent legal qualifications. Mr. Ruppel is closely identified with church affairs and for twenty-two years has been leader of the Lutheran choir and orchestra, and has always had a deep interest in everything pertaining to musical advancement.

Hon. Wm. H. Koontz.

The Honorable William H. Koontz, ex-member of Congress from the Sixteenth District, is one of Pennsylvania's sons and brightest statesmen. He was born in July, 1830, in Somerset. His grandfather, Samuel, came from Lancaster County and was one of the early settlers of this county. Mr. Koontz's father, Jacob, was a farmer; the family has thus been closely identified with the place for nearly a century. After receiving a common school education, Mr. Koontz studied law with Forward and Stutzman. He was admitted to practice in 1851 and in 1853, he was so far advanced in his profession that he was elected district attorney, by what was then the Whig Party. In 1860, he was a delegate to the National Republican Convention at Chicago and was the first to cast his vote for Abraham Lincoln. In the same year, he was elected prothonotary of the county, and since then he has taken a very active part in county, State and national affairs. In 1864, he was elected to Congress from the Sixteenth District, comprising the counties of Somerset, Fulton, Franklin and Adams. He was a very able official in this position and gave the community such great satisfaction that he was re-elected in 1866; during this period, he was a member of the House Committee on the District of Columbia, and Expenditures of the Interior Department. General Koontz, as he is called by many of his friends, which is in the nature of an honorary brevet, was greatly interested and indefatigable in his work of reconstruction in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congress. In "The History of the Reconstruction Measures," Vice-President Wilson remarks, concerning this gentleman, "Mr. Koontz, of Pennsylvania, was for the protection of the people of the South, who had been true to the Union, without regard to race or color." He also quotes the following from the speech, delivered by Mr. Koontz: "The great duty rests upon us to finish the work which has not been finished by warfare. The shackles of four millions of slaves were melted by the fierce fires of civil war, but the animus of slavery, its passions and prejudices yet remain. It is our duty so to legislate as to remove the last relic of a barbarism that would have suited the dark ages; to conform our institutions to the advanced condition which will have been brought about by the revolution just ended, and when this shall be done, the great Republic, freed from the dark stain of human slavery will start upon her mission to promulgate by precept and example the immutable and eternal truth of the equality of men, and before whose resistless march kingdoms and powers and all systems built upon caste and creed for the oppression of men will be wiped from the face of the earth and known no more for ever." Mr. Koontz was one of the first citizens of Somerset to bring about the Second Brigade Encampment. While not a member of the National Guard, he has been closely identified with its higher officials and is thoroughly interested in the welfare of Pennsylvania citizen soldiery. Since the expiration of his second term in Congress, in 1869, he has been actively engaged in his profession and as an advocate, lawyer and citizen will always have an enduring place in the history of Somerset County.

Harvey M. Berkley, Esq.

One of the popular representative men of Somerset County is Harvey M. Berkley, Esq.; he is always uppermost in everything that pertains to the public interests of his native heath. He has many friends in the National Guard, especially in General Wiley's Brigade. Some of his admirers have suggested his being peculiarly fitted for a Judge Advocate in the State Service. Mr. Berkley was educated at Juniata College, at Huntingdon, Pa., and at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa. After graduating from the latter institution with first honor, he received the degree of Master of Science, after which he accepted the instructorship, in the years 1886 and 1887, in Latin and Mathematics at the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute, at Towanda, Pa. He also carried on the study of law in the office of Rodney A. Mercer, son of the late Chief Justice, and was admitted to practice in 1888. He was also admitted to practice in Somerset County in 1889. In 1892 he became cashier of the First National Bank; in this position he has the executive management of the institution and his superior educational advantages and knowledge of legal procedure have been of incalculable value to him in conducting successfully the affairs of the bank. His policy is liberal as far as consistent with sound financiering and the institution is deservedly popular among all classes. Mr. Berkley's constituents state that he bids fair to become a leader in affairs political.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

Office of Adjutant General.

Trenton, September 16, 1901.

General Orders, No. 13.

I. In honor of the memory of William McKinley, late President of the United States, it is ordered that on Thursday, September 19, 1901, the day on which the body of the dead President will be laid in its last resting place, the national flags be displayed at half-staff at the Arsenal and at the military armories of the State; that, at dawn of that day, thirteen guns be fired at the State Arsenal, and afterwards, at intervals of thirty minutes between the rising and setting of the sun, a single gun, and at the close of the day the salute of the Union of forty-five guns.

The Quartermaster-General and the officers in command of the respective armories are charged with the execution of this order.

II. All officers of the National Guard of this State, when on duty, will wear crape on the left arm and on the sword hilt for thirty days from this date, and all regimental and battalion colors will be furled and draped for the same period.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief.

ALEXANDER C. OLIPHANT,
Adjutant General.

Official:

HEADQUARTERS NATIONAL GUARD OF PENN'A.

Adjutant General's Office.

Harrisburg, September 14, 1901.

General Orders, No. 27.

I. The President of the United States, William McKinley, died at Buffalo, New York, at fifteen minutes past two o'clock, this morning, Saturday, September 14th.

II. The National Guard of Pennsylvania share with their fellow-citizens the feeling of grief that pervades our Nation upon the happening of this great calamity.

III. At such points within the several brigades as the Division Commander may designate, on the Monday following the date of this order, a single gun will be fired at intervals of thirty minutes, beginning at sunrise and ending at sunset, and at the close of the day the National salute of twenty-one guns.

The guns from these Headquarters will be fired from the State Arsenal grounds.

IV. Commissioned officers will wear the badge of military mourning, and the colors of regiments will be placed in mourning or draped for the period of thirty days.

By order of WILLIAM A. STONE,
Governor and Commander-in-Chief.
